CAPITAL CAMPAIGN CONSULTING SERVICES

The University of Maine, acting through the University of Maine System, is seeking the services of a nationally-recognized fundraising consulting firm. The firm’s work may include three separate, sequential, engagements to be provided by a Campaign Consultant reporting to the President and working closely with the Vice President for Development, the President of the University of Maine Foundation, and the Chair of the Board of Visitors Advancement Committee. Each engagement includes specific deliverables comprising a Campaign Readiness Assessment, Fundraising Feasibility Study, and a service engagement for Ongoing Campaign Counsel.

Overview:
Over the past two decades, the University of Maine has been successfully transitioning its revenue stream from one that was predominately dependent upon state funds, tuition and fees to one that now includes a growing percentage of private gift support, as evidenced by the comprehensive campaign ending in July 2011 that raised $157 million against a goal of $150 million. In addition, capital improvements which were once almost entirely funded with state funds now include a much greater percentage of private support. University leadership recognizes that in order to ensure the success of its next campaign professional philanthropic guidance is needed. With the judicious use of fundraising counsel, UMaine anticipates achieving the largest comprehensive campaign in its history—one dedicated to funding the university’s Blue Sky strategic planning initiatives and enhancing the university’s culture of philanthropy by raising the sights of current supporters, attracting new first time donors, and engaging a much larger cadre of volunteer leaders.

The respective goals of these three engagements are to measure the University’s current level of philanthropic program readiness; to test the validity of campaign objectives and the proposed dollar goals; and to provide ongoing counsel during the course of the campaign.

The scope of work shall include, but is not limited to:

1. Campaign Readiness Assessment: Measure the University's current level of philanthropic program readiness by surveying internal and external organizational structures; appraise the current status and use of the Advance database; review prospect, donor and gift acceptance policies; evaluate the translation of Blue Sky Plan priorities into campaign goals; assess professional and clerical resources; and guide the creation of volunteer committees. Counsel shall also help design a volunteer leadership structure; advise on a timeline for campaign preparation and execution; confirm any additional processes and resources essential for campaign success; identify gaps and weaknesses; and make recommendations thereon.

2. Fundraising Feasibility Study: Evaluate the draft Campaign Case for Support and Naming Opportunities. Review pool of top donors for interviewee selection criteria. Consult regarding interview questions and provide direction regarding timing and logistics of the interview process. Complete interviews with 100+ UMaine donors and prospects; guide the construction of the Gift Table; and provide recommendations on dollar goal, constituencies, campaign leadership and level of funding attractiveness of the various parts tested.

Counsel shall also offer strategic advice on campaign activity timing and sequencing, including the advisability of regional efforts and scheduling the public phase; recommend communication strategies to promote and support the campaign; make recommendations on the choice, use and roles of volunteer leadership; and deliver a comprehensive report with enough raw data to confirm conclusions by tabulating data, collecting narratives and synthesizing all responses.

3. Ongoing Campaign Counsel: Help nurture UMaine’s culture of philanthropy through ongoing education that is appropriate for different audiences, i.e. university leadership, faculty, volunteers, principal prospects, etc. Advise the President, Advancement Team and volunteer leadership on campaign strategies and implementation of the study’s recommendations. Be on call to help troubleshoot the unforeseen and unexpected; work closely with campaign leadership, reviewing campaign progress; and recommend allocation of resources and campaign communications.
Deliverables shall include, but are not limited to:

1. Readiness Assessment: This will include a comprehensive Assessment Report, delivered in writing and presented orally, that details all aspects of the ongoing fund development activities of the multi-partner Advancement team as it bears on the University’s capacity to perform at an optimal level during a contemplated comprehensive capital campaign. The report will provide a record of the current system of donor relationship building, prospect management and donor stewardship, and as such will become a benchmark against which improvements will be measured in coming years. The report also will contain recommendations that will position the University to add a robust multi-year campaign to its existing development activities, including funding options such as gift fees and/or endowment management fees and justification for such based upon best practices nationwide.

2. Fundraising Feasibility Study: This engagement will include several deliverables: a Fundraising Feasibility Study Report which, while maintaining interviewee confidentiality, will provide extensive summary information and enough raw data to confirm conclusions and recommendations for campaign success. In addition, the consultant will conduct at least three Study Presentations including but not limited to University development and Foundation staff, Board of Visitors, and University Executive Leadership and for that purpose will provide an Executive Summary of the Report.

3. Ongoing Campaign Counsel: This engagement will have two deliverables: ongoing communication with the President and his/her designees at a frequency and for a period of time to be determined, and the end of service status report. It is anticipated that the ongoing advice provided by the firm will include email and telephone interactions, however, face to face interactions with key campaign and University leadership will occur periodically. At the conclusion of the ongoing campaign counsel engagement, the firm will present a written campaign status report with any recommendations for the successful conclusion of the campaign and post-campaign strategic initiatives.

Submission requirements and instructions:

Vendors desiring to be considered for this project should submit a letter indicating interest and the ability to start work on the first engagement during November 2013. The University has the expectation that this project, including the delivery of a final report for the first engagement, would conclude by no later than December 31, 2013. Phase Two of the engagement, the Feasibility Study, is preliminarily scheduled for January – March 2014. The need for on-going counsel is anticipated to last until the conclusion of the campaign in 2020.

Consultants have an obligation to disclose any situation of actual or potential conflict that impacts their capacity to serve the best interest of the University of Maine System and the University of Maine, or that may reasonably be perceived as having this effect. Failure to disclose said situations may lead to the disqualification of the Consultant or the termination of the contract. The System reserves the right to consider potential conflict in the selection process to include potential relationships that may affect implementation solutions.

Original and one (1) copy of the following must accompany the letter:

1. A statement of qualifications to include experience as a consultant in similar projects;

2. A list of analogous consulting projects conducted in the last three years for public colleges and universities similar in size and resources to the University of Maine;

3. A list of three references from public colleges and universities for work performed within the last three years on projects of similar size and scope;
4. A profile of key personnel to be involved in the project (these individuals must participate in the interview, if granted);

5. An indication of the types of information and data you would require from the University;

6. A proposed schedule and budget for the three phases of the project. The University desires that consulting fees be kept to a minimum consistent with the highest quality of professional service. Please thoroughly describe pricing structure including assumed hours and hourly rates for various levels of staff. If a bidder chooses to present multiple approaches to this project, a bidder may present different prices along with the associated scope of service. As the University works through this process and its understanding of the scope of services needed, the University may ask for clarification on scope and/or pricing;

7. The standard rates for the key personnel identified in the submission pursuant to item 4 above;

8. Affirmation of the University's standard terms and conditions. Any desired deviations from the standard terms and conditions must be identified in the affirmation and the System reserves the right to reject any such requests or proposals making such requests.

Additional instructions:

The University's Professional Service Contract: Is attached for your review. Please be advised that the University will require the standard terms and conditions included with that contract as part of any agreement resulting from this request for qualifications, pursuant to item 8 above. It is not necessary to complete the contract at this time; it is for your information. The bidder selected for this project will be required to show evidence of, and maintain through completion of the project, all required insurance as provided for in Attachment B of the Professional Services Contract.

Evaluation Criteria: Proposals shall be evaluated on many criteria deemed to be in the University's best interests, including, but not limited to; fees for services, bidder's experience and success with engagements of comparable size and scope, and the communication, experience, and leadership skills of the bidder and proposed principal account representative.

Interviews: Bidders may be contacted to participate in interviews. Interviews currently are expected to be conducted in September 2013. Any bidder making a submission must be prepared to participate during that timeframe. The System will make reasonable attempts to accommodate scheduling constraints.

Award of Proposal: Presentations may be requested of two or more bidders deemed by the University to be the best suited among those submitting proposals on the basis of the selection criteria. After presentations have been conducted, the University may select the bidder which, in its opinion, has made the proposal that is the most responsive and most responsible and may award the Contract to that bidder.

1. The University reserves the right to waive minor irregularities. Scholarships, donations, or gifts to the University, will not be considered in the evaluation of proposals. The University reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, in whole or in part, and is not necessarily bound to accept the lowest cost proposal if that proposal is contrary to the best interests of the University. The University may cancel this Request for Qualifications or reject any or all proposals in whole or in part. Should the University determine in its sole discretion that only one bidder is fully qualified, or that one bidder is clearly more qualified than any other under consideration, a contract may be awarded to that bidder without further action.

2. Bidders may appeal the award decision by submitting a written protest to the UMS Director of Strategic Procurement within 5 business days of the date of the award notice with a copy of the protest to the successful bidder. The protest must contain a statement of the basis for the challenge.

3. Any contract or agreement for services that will, or may, result in the expenditure by the University of $50,000 or more must be approved in writing by the Director of Strategic Procurement and it is not approved, valid or effective until such written approval is granted.

4. The University must adhere to the provisions of the Maine Freedom of Access Act (FOAA), 1 MRSA §401 et seq. As a condition of accepting a contract under this section, a contractor must accept that, to the extent required by the Maine FOAA, responses to this solicitation, and any ensuing contractual documents, are considered public records and therefore are subject to freedom of access requests.

All responses should be addressed to:

1. Standards for Safeguarding Information: The Contractor agrees to implement reasonable and appropriate security measures to protect all systems that transmit, store or process Compliant Data and Business Sensitive Information or personally identifiable information from Compliant Data and Business Sensitive Information furnished by the University, or collected by the Contractor on behalf of the University, against loss of data, unauthorized use or disclosure, and take measures to adequately protect against unauthorized access and malware in the course of this engagement.

   A. Compliant Data and Business Sensitive Information may include, but is not limited to names, addresses, phone numbers, financial information, bank account and credit card numbers, other employee and student personal information (including their academic record, etc.), Drivers License and Social Security numbers, in both paper and electronic format.

A. Except as provided in Section 3(B), upon termination, cancellation, or expiration of the Agreement, for any reason, Contractor shall cease and desist all uses and disclosures of Compliant Data or Business Sensitive Information and shall immediately return or destroy (if the University gives written permission to destroy) in a reasonable manner all such information received from the University, or created or received by Contractor on behalf of the University, provided, however, that Contractor shall reasonably cooperate with the University to ensure that no original information records are destroyed. This provision shall apply to information that is in the possession of subcontractors or agents of Contractor. Contractor shall retain no copies of University information, including any compilations derived from and allowing identification of any individual’s confidential information. Except as provided in Section 3(B), Contractor shall return (or destroy) information within 30 days after termination, cancellation, or expiration of this Agreement.

B. In the event that Contractor determines that returning or destroying any such information is infeasible, Contractor shall provide to University notification of the conditions that make return or destruction infeasible.
